NICOL LEÓN ARGE

BILINGUAL (ENGLISH/SPANISH) WRITER

WHO AM I?

Bilingual (English–Spanish) journalist with experience reporting and producing human rights and immigration stories across the U.S. and Peru. Skilled in building, editing and publishing digital content for broad audiences, with a focus on making complex issues accessible. Experienced working across newsrooms and collaborative projects to amplify underreported stories through editorial, audience engagement and multimedia formats.

SKILLS

Fact-checking
Document-based reporting (court records, public filings)
Social media newsgathering and audience engagement
FOIA/FOIL requests and public records retrieval
PACER, CourtListener, LexisNexis
Data cleaning (OpenRefine)
Identifying patterns in datasets
Working closely with reporters and editors under deadlines)

EDUCATION

Craig Newmark Graduate School of Journalism at CUNY — New York, NY / M.A. in Bilingual Journalism, 2025

Universidad Nacional Federico Villarreal — Lima, Perú / B.A. in Communication Sciences (Journalism specialization), 2018

RECOGNITION

Lorana Sullivan Scholar, CUNY, 2024
NAHJ-FIU Chapter, Second Place, 2025

CONTACT DETAILS

(929) 383-9771
nicol.leonarge36@journalism.cuny.edu
LinkedIn profile

JOURNALISM EXPERIENCE

Reporter
National Domestic Workers Alliance (New York, NY) | 2026 - Present

- Produce and edit Spanish-language service journalism on legal rights and immigration resources, translating complex policy into clear information for Latino domestic and home care workers across the U.S.
- Write and edit Spanish-language Facebook copy targeting Latina domestic and home care workers across the U.S., developing survey-driven content to gather audience feedback on resources produced by La Alianza, NDWA's Spanish-language platform.

Freelance Reporter
Documented NY (New York, NY) | 2025-Present

- Engaged Spanish-speaking immigrants in New York through on-the-ground reporting and follow-ups to document how gaps in access to legal services affect their ability to navigate immigration court.
- Reported and wrote a feature on a Peruvian designer whose work centers trans migrant communities, translating cultural expression, identity and policy-related issues, including access to services and the impact of federal funding cuts, into a narrative-driven story for U.S. English-speaking audiences.
- Conducted interviews in Spanish and translated firsthand testimonies into English, ensuring accuracy and clarity across languages.

Reporter Intern
WNYC Radio / Gothamist (New York, NY) | Oct–Dec 2025

- Helped break a major story on eviction notices at the Row Hotel migrant shelter by identifying resident tips, verifying documents with city agencies and reporting from the field.
- Wrote and adapted stories for digital and radio audiences, collaborating with editors on scripts fot the morning newscast.
- Covered fast-turn local news, city government and service journalism under tight deadlines.
- Contributed to coverage planning by identifying newsworthy angles, monitoring developments and helping shape audience-focused storylines for digital and radio platforms.

Immigration Reporter Intern
The Arizona Republic / USA Today Co. (Phoenix, AZ) | Jun–Aug 2025

- Pitched, reported and wrote 12 stories in English and Spanish for digital publication, covering breaking and enterprise developments on immigration and public policy.
- Observed immigration hearings and analyzed federal filings to produce accountability stories on legal access and due process.
- Analyzed a non-public dataset to identify migration trends and support original reporting.

Reporter
Puente News Collaborative & CUNY (El Paso, TX) | Apr–Jun 2025

- Selected for a cross-border reporting collaboration focused on U.S. immigration policy and its impact on Latino communities.
- Reported and produced a Spanish-language enterprise story on reunification barriers for unaccompanied minors, combining interviews, immigration court observation and federal data analysis.
- Translated complex legal and policy frameworks into clear, accessible narratives for Spanish-speaking audiences.
- Contributed reporting published by The Arizona Republic, El País US and Palabra NAHJ.

Freelance Reporter
El País US & El País América | 2024–2025

- Reported and wrote Spanish-language stories on immigration and housing policy for U.S. Latino audiences, including coverage of street vendors in New York navigating enforcement policies, unaccompanied minors facing legal barriers under federal immigration measures and immigrant mothers impacted by the closure of city-funded shelters.
- Ensured linguistic accuracy and consistency across bilingual reporting, adapting content to reflect the realities and context of Spanish-speaking communities.

Reporter
La República, Wayka, Infobae Perú | 2019-2023

- Reported for Spanish-speaking publications (newspaper, digital) on politics, human rights and social issues, covering how public policy impacts vulnerable communities.
- Conducted on-the-ground reporting, interviews and document-based investigations in fast-paced Spanish-speaking newsroom environments.
- Produced clear, audience-focused stories in Spanish, translating complex issues into accessible narratives.